

Stefan Burchardt

Stefan Burchardt was born in Denmark in 2003 and started playing the violin at the age of four. At the age of seven, he made his debut as a soloist with the Odense Symphony Orchestra. Stefan is currently studying at Universität der Künste Berlin with Prof. Latica Honda-Rosenberg.

At nine years old he won the 2nd Prize at Bravo! International Violin Competition 2012, in 2014 1st Prize at Flame Concours in Paris, and was a finalist at the Eugène Ysaÿe International Music Competition 2019.

Stefan is the 1st Prizewinner at Jugend Musiziert Bundeswettbewerb 2019 and winner of the Hermann Abs-Prize for the best interpretation of a work by Beethoven and was invited to give the final concert at the Beethoven-Haus in Bonn. In 2019 he won the 1st Prize at the International Øresunds Solist Competition and the talent prize in the younger category. In 2021 he won the 1st prize in the older category of the International Øresunds Soloist competition and is since an "EMCY" soloist.

Stefan has won numerous Prizes at domestic competitions, amongst those the Grand Talent Prize at the Berlingske Music Competition. In 2017 he was invited to participate in Danish Radio's televised competition where he won the title of "Wonder child" of Denmark and toured Denmark in 2017 playing performing over 40 concerts.

Stefan has performed a wide variety of concerts internationally, with a wide variety of orchestras such as The Danish National Orchestra, Odense Symphony orchestra, and others. He's also performed in many prominent halls such as the Berlin Philharmonie, Carl-Nielsen Hall in Denmark, and Beethoven Haus Bonn amongst many others around the world.

Stefan has received essential inspiration through masterclasses at the Kronberg Academy and with prominent teachers such as Olivier Charlier (Paris Conservatoire), Maciej Rakowski (Royal College, London), Alf Richard Kraggerud (Barratt Due Musikk institutt, Oslo), Malin Broman (Stockholm, Sweden) amongst others.

If you are interested in getting in touch or working with Stefan, please don't hesitate to contact him. You'll find more information at his website: Burchardt.nu